

Conti di Val Seriana

2006 SOLEGGIO

Columbia Valley

Soleggio, which means sunshine in Italian, represents the sunshine-ripened grapes which make up this Super Tuscan style wine. Sangiovese and Cabernet Sauvignon provide structure and brightness as Merlot adds balance.

This wine opens with a burst of figs and bright cherry while the structured tannins tie the black pepper, toast and coffee notes into a lasting finish. Enjoy this wine with flavorful dishes including cheeses and roasted meats.

Produced by Apolloni Vineyards

Grape Varietals:

45% Sangiovese, - Candy Mountain

45% Cabernet Sauvignon – Le Coline

10% Merlot – Pepper Bridge

Appellation: Columbia Valley

Harvest Date: 1 – 9 October 2006

Sugar at harvest: 24.2°- 25.9° Brix

pH at Harvest: 3.63 – 3.81

Alcohol: 14.2 % by volume

168 Cases Produced

