

Soleggio, which means sunshine in Italian, represents the sunshine-ripened grapes, which make up this Super Tuscan style wine. Sangiovese and Cabernet Sauvignon provide structure and brightness as Merlot adds balance. This wine opens with a burst of figs and bright cherry while the structured tannins tie the black pepper, toast and coffee notes into a lasting finish. Enjoy this wine with flavorful dishes, including cheeses and roasted meats.

Grape Varietals:

51% Sangiovese - Candy Mountain

42 % Cabernet Sauvignon – Pepper Bridge

7 % Merlot – Pepper Bridge

Appellation: Columbia Valley

Harvest Date: 2 & 14 October 2008

Sugar at harvest: 24.1°- 26.6° Brix

pH at Harvest: 3.31 – 3.99

Alcohol: 14.5 % by volume

327 Cases Produced